The smock stitch is a beautiful and popular stitch. Kiki has made a chart for it.

You need to be careful when you are working this. Look closely at the beginning and the end of each row. Do not forget to skip that stitch!

Yarn Under, 2TOG

Lay your yarn from front to back over your hook, HOLD IT TIGHT!!!, insert hook under next 2 vertical bars and pull up a loop.

Repeat this for all indicated stitches.

Attaching

Starting at the far right edge join in the back of the horizontal line, picking up 30 loops and the connection. (32 loops on the hook)
